Halton Chamber Women in Business event

Business skills and fashion design come under the spotlight at the next lunchtime meeting of Halton Women in Business on Tuesday 15 December, 12-2pm.

Organised by Halton Chamber of Commerce and Enterprise, the networking event is open to all businesswomen in the Halton area and will feature three talks from inspiring local speakers - Jill Corkish, Director of Elmbrook Solutions, Chris Lincoln from The Heath School and exciting young fashion designer, Natalie Beard, who runs her own company, Love Frocks

The event, which includes a light festive lunch, will be held in the Orchard Restaurant at The Heath Business and Technical Park in Runcorn, and will provide women with a supportive environment to network, learn and promote their business.

To reserve a place, please email Nicola Holland at nicolah@haltonchamber.com or ring 01928 516142. The event costs £10 but is free to members of Halton Chamber. Details are also on the Halton Chamber website: www.haltonchamber.com
