Warrington law firm announces sponsorship deal for Lymm Rugby Club

Cheshire law firm Forshaws Davies Ridgway LLP has scored a winner by announcing a new sponsorship deal for Lymm Rugby Club.

The deal, worth several thousand pounds, will provide welcome support for the newly promoted club for the whole season.

Tim Jordan, a partner at Warrington-based Forshaws Davies Ridgway (FDR), explained: "As a local firm, we have strong ties with the local community we serve. Lymm Rugby Club gave us a fantastic display last season and we are proud to be associated with this great team as they carry forward the hopes of all local fans into the new league."
