NEWS RELEASE

1 April 2010

Halton Chamber offers double networking opportunities in April

Double networking opportunities are on offer to local businesses in April from Halton Chamber of Commerce and Enterprise.

The Chamber's popular 1st Tuesday Breakfast event has moved to Tuesday 13th April due to the Easter holidays. Starting at 7.45am with a cooked breakfast, the event will feature a presentation from Kathryn Spencer, director of KMS Finance.

She will be outlining the advantages of bringing in specialist financial help to improve cash flow, tax planning, budgeting and strategic business planning for small businesses.

And on Tuesday 20th April, the Chamber's bi-monthly Women in Business network holds a lunchtime session, with talks and top tips from three speakers. Hosted by Jill Corkish, from Elmbrook Solutions, the event will feature presentations from Ann Girling, a coach and health visitor who runs her own business, On the Threshold; SOG customer services manager, Pam Myers, talking about multi-tasking and PC Support Group director, Pam Case, on effective networking.

The Women in Business event is running a special promotion this month inviting delegates to bring a friend for free. It runs from 11.45am – 2pm and includes a light lunch.

Both networking events will be held at Runcorn's Heath Business Park and cost £10 for members and £5 for non-members. The Breakfast event will be held in the restaurant and the Women in Business event in the conference centre. To reserve a place, email nicolah@haltonchamber.com or call 01928 516142. Details are also on the Halton Chamber website: www.haltonchamber.com
