

Kingsley Players present “Communicating Doors”

7 May 2010

Kingsley Players are back with their popular dinner and theatre presentations and a production of Alan Ayckbourn’s comedy thriller, “Communicating Doors”.

Directed by Malcolm Barker, the play runs from Wednesday 19th May to Saturday 22nd May. The production will be presented in normal auditorium style on the first two nights, with seats costing £5 and £4 concessions.

On Friday and Saturday nights, a three course meal will be served before the performance and joint tickets can be booked in advance for £12.

Written in 1993, this is one of Ayckbourn’s most optimistic plays. Malcolm explained: “With Communicating Doors, Ayckbourn used the comedy thriller genre to great effect. The plot follows a London ‘sex specialist’ from the future who stumbles on a death plot and travels back in time, via a set of connecting hotel room doors, to try and prevent two murders.”

The play features six well-known local actors: Neil Silcock, Simon Sutton, Kath Kerry, Lesley Silcock, Colin Smith and Laura Williams.

Tickets can be booked in advance at Holland Pharmacy in Kingsley, online at www.kingsleyplayers.co.uk or by ringing the box office on 07925 516760.
