

Kingsley Players and KPYT back on stage with Peter Pan panto

Fly to Neverland with Kingsley Players for a fantastic pantomime based on J.M. Barrie's much-loved, classic fantasy tale Peter Pan – on stage at Kingsley Community Centre at the end of January (26th – 29th).

Captain Hook, Tinkerbell, Wendy, the Lost Boys and other familiar characters will be joined by pantomime dame Nanny McSmeem for a riotous re-telling of the famous story in a new adaptation by Alex Jackson.

Directed by Kingsley Players Youth Theatre's award-winning director Jake Powell, the Peter Pan panto offers audiences a magical, entertaining show bursting with foot-tapping tunes, dance spectaculars and laugh-out-loud jokes.

Youth Theatre stalwart, Iona Anstice, takes on the role of Peter Pan, the boy who never grows up, while her dad, Ian Anstice, is transformed into the larger-than-life panto dame, Nanny McSmees.

Jake said: "With a large talented cast of 25 adults and children, we promise to take the audience on an amazing journey from the streets of London to a fantasy tropical island. This pantomime will have something for everyone – even a little magic!"

Peter Pan will play for five performances at Kingsley Community Centre, from Wednesday 26th January to Saturday 29th January 2022, 7.30pm, including a Saturday matinee at 2.30pm.

Tickets cost £10, with £7 tickets available for students/children. These can be booked online at www.kingsleyplayers.co.uk or by ringing the box office on 07724 892154.
